

About George Cheah | NJPA Pickleball Teaching Professional

George Cheah has held senior management positions with Proctor & Gamble, Merrill Lynch, Beecham, and ICAP. He was Founder and President of MYCA, a risk management technology system for multiple Wall Street firms.

George Cheah, Pickleball Uber

Racquet Sports

- Founder and President of NJPA, the New Jersey Pickleball Association, and the Pickleball Incremental Progression (IP) Academy.
- IPTPA-Certified Level 2 Pickleball Teaching Professional.
- PPR-Certified Pickleball Coach.
- Qualifier for the 2022 National Senior Olympics, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
- 2021 New Jersey Senior Olympics: Gold medalist for age category 75-and-over.
- Medalist in Gold, Silver, and Bronze for 70-and-over age category at the New Jersey Senior Olympics, Connecticut Masters, and Nutmeg State Games.
- Qualifier for the 2019 National Senior Olympics, Albuquerque, New Mexico.
- Tournament Director for seven different NJPA events.
- Tournament Committee Member for the New Jersey Senior Olympics.
- For Upper Ridgewood Tennis Club: Program Organizer for tennis and platform tennis; age-group champion in club tournaments: Men's Singles, Men's Doubles, and Mixed Doubles.

Teaching and Coaching

Playing and Competing